Our Plan

We updated our plan while developing our Application

Strategy Changed

As we started with the front-end development, we found it may be better for us to keep the consistency of using our knowledge, we change our strategy to finish the front-end, then backend and finally data analysis.

We do our testing with Expo at the same time of our development.

Menu Page for customer side:

- They're simple
- You can click and show the details option for each item
- You can search the food you want!

And the most important thing: you can add the food with you pre-checking.
